

Veterinary Information and Career Fair Friday March 14, 2008

The American Association of Veterinary Colleges presents its bi-annual career fair; a unique opportunity devoted to prospective students interested in future careers in veterinary medicine. Featuring both U.S. and international colleges and universities, the AAVMC invites guests to featured sessions on Careers in Public Health Veterinarians. Meet guest speakers, admissions directors, administrators and alumni available for on hand questions and informational sessions for high school and college students!

March 14, 2008
2:30pm-6:00pm
Westin City Center
1400 M Street, NW
Washington, D.C.

Pre-register by visiting the AAVMC online at www.aavmc.org. For more information email: Lisa Greenhill, Executive Director of Diversity Matters at AAVMC lgreenhill@aavmc.org

Participating Institutions as of 2/12/08

Auburn University • Colorado State University • Cornell University • Kansas State University • Louisiana School of Veterinary Medicine • Michigan State University • Mississippi State University • North Carolina State University • The Ohio State University • The Royal Veterinary College • Tufts University • University of California - Davis • University of Calgary • University of Georgia • University of Glasgow • University of Pennsylvania • Western University of Health Sciences

The AAVMC is committed to providing students with opportunities to explore the veterinary medical profession.