

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF THE
ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN
VETERINARY MEDICAL COLLEGES

Each of the undersigned, being a natural person of the age of at least twenty-one years and acting as an incorporator for the purpose of organizing a corporation pursuant to the provisions of the District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation Act (the "Act"), does hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation is Association of American Veterinary Medical Colleges.

ARTICLE II

The duration of the Association is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The Association is hereby organized for the purpose of advancing veterinary medical education. The Association is organized and shall be operated exclusively for scientific, educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any succeeding statute). The Association shall have in furtherance of the aforesaid purpose all of the powers conferred upon corporations organized pursuant to the provisions of the Act.

ARTICLE IV

The Association may have more than one class of members. The voting rights may be limited or denied for one or more of the classes of members, provided that at least one class of members shall have voting rights. The membership shall act through an Assembly. The composition and powers of the Assembly (other than the powers set forth herein) shall be enumerated in the Bylaws of the Association.

The Assembly shall have the power to (i) determine eligibility for each class of membership, (ii) establish the voting rights of each class of membership, subject to the requirements of statute and these Articles of Incorporation, (iii) establish the dues paid by each class of members, and (iv) elect the Board of Directors, the president-elect, the secretary, and the treasurer. The manner of such elections shall be set forth in the Bylaws of the Association. Any changes in the membership requirements, including, without limitation, the level of dues, shall require (a) the approval of at least two-thirds of the Representatives present, whether in person or by proxy, at a meeting of the Assembly duly called at which a quorum is present, or (b) the unanimous written consent of the Representatives.

ARTICLE V

The address of the initial registered office of the Association is: Association of American Veterinary Medical Colleges, 1101 Vermont Avenue, N.W., Suite 710, Washington, D.C. 20005-3521. The name of the Association's initial registered agent at the aforesaid address is Dr. Lester Crawford.

ARTICLE VI

Except as otherwise provided herein or as required by law, the affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors, which shall consist of no less than nine members.

The name and the address, including street and number, if any, of each of the persons who are to serve as the initial Directors of the corporation until their successors are elected and qualify, or until their earlier resignation or removal, are as follows:
