

United States Department of Agriculture

One Health in Veterinary Services

John R. Clifford
Deputy Administrator
U.S. Department of Agriculture
Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service
Veterinary Services
March 14, 2014

United States Department of Agriculture

VS Reorganization

Surveillance, Preparedness, and Response Services

National Import and Export Services

Science, Technology, and Analysis Services

Program Support Services

VS Mission

As the recognized animal health leader and trusted partner, Veterinary Services safeguards the health of animals, people, and the environment.

One Health Coordination Center

VS.OHCO@aphis.usda.gov

Priorities

- VS has defined five One Health priorities

Antimicrobial Resistance

Pandemic and Animal Disease Preparedness: Influenza

- Encourage a cooperative approach among trading partners

United States Department of Agriculture

Global Health Security & One Health Infrastructure

University/VS Collaborations

One Health Core Competencies

- Several efforts have been undertaken to identify core competencies for One Health.

United States Department of Agriculture

One Health Opportunities with VS for Students

Summary

- To summarize, VS has five One Health focal areas:
  - Zoonotic Disease Engagement, Investigation, and Response
  - Preharvest Food Safety
  - Antimicrobial Resistance
  - Pandemic and Animal Disease Preparedness
  - Global Health Security

United States Department of Agriculture

Questions?

