

CALL FOR POSTER ABSTRACTS

2010 Joint AAVMC/AAVC Annual Meeting

You are invited to submit a poster abstract for the 2010 Joint AAVMC/AAVC Annual Meeting to be held March 10–14, 2010 at the Westin Alexandria in Alexandria, VA.

Poster Presentations:

AAVMC and AAVC are delighted to announce an exciting opportunity for faculty and students to publicize and share best practices and innovation in veterinary medical education. Faculty and students with an interest in pedagogy, development, and innovation in the modern veterinary curriculum are invited to present posters on educational topics. Posters related to the major educational session themes of the conference are encouraged. These themes include the following:

- I. Internship, Residency, and Clinical Research Training
- II. Assessment – The Starting Point for Curriculum Design
- III. Delivering the Curriculum Today and Tomorrow
- IV. The Professional Student and the Research Environment

Poster abstracts will be displayed at a dedicated poster session held during the AAVMC President's Reception on the evening of Saturday, March 13th from 6:30 pm–8:30 pm. An award of $500 will be granted to the poster judged to be the best by the program advisory committee.

Please submit abstracts via e-mail to Cindy DeLano at jvme@aavmc.org no later than February 8, 2010. Abstracts must be limited to 250 words. Please include the following information with your abstract:

- Title of abstract and text
- Primary author's name, degree(s), board certification(s), position, department, organization/institution, address, telephone number, and e-mail address
- Name(s) of each of additional author(s) and their organization/institution

The program advisory committee will review all poster abstracts. The committee will notify individuals submitting abstracts of the results of the review by February 15, 2010. Accepted posters must be presented by an author at the meeting, requiring the presenter to register for the meeting and pay for any costs associated with attending.
