

Financial Decisions & Veterinary School

There are numerous financial decisions associated with your decision to pursue a career in veterinary medicine. Planning for specific expenses leads to better financial decisions.

This brief highlights some of the major things you can plan for as you continue your journey to and through veterinary school.

Getting Ready to Apply

Undergraduate & Pre-Requisite Tuition

Paid vs. Unpaid Experiential Hours

Optional Summer Program Costs

Optional Test Prep Programs

Pre-Vets

Applying to Veterinary School

GRE Testing, Score Submission & Transcript Submission

VMCAS Fees & Supplemental Application Fees

Applicant Interview Expenses

Enrollment Deposit & Relocation Expenses!

Applicants

Veterinary
Students

While in Veterinary School

Educational Loan Options

External Clinical Education Opportunities

Professional, Research & Leadership
Meeting Attendance

Paying Interest on Student Loans

4th Year

Preparing for Graduation

Off-Site Externships

Licensing Test Fees

Interview Expenses for Jobs
& Internships

Salary & Benefits Negotiations

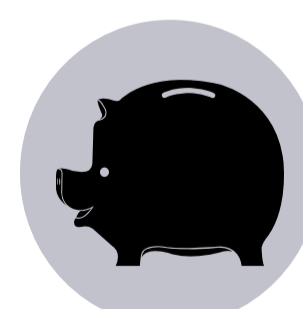

Loan Repayment Options

Relocation Expenses

Post-Grad

After Graduation

Savings & Investments

Insurance Policies

Loan Repayment Begins

Continuing Education