2019 AAVMC Communications Excellence Award

Official Nomination Form

The "AAVMC Communications Excellence Award" recognizes the important role communication programs play in advancing academic veterinary medicine and the profession. It also seeks to inspire higher levels of performance among our members.

The award includes a $1,000 honorarium, a plaque, and recognition during the annual meeting of the Association of Veterinary Advancement Professionals (AVAP). The recipient is expected to attend the AVAP meeting held in conjunction with the 2019 annual meeting of the AVMA in Washington, D.C. to participate in the award presentation ceremony.

While the award recognizes institutional achievement in this performance area, the honorific and the honorarium are presented to an individual. Member institutions determine the specific employee they wish to nominate for the award.

All nominations must be submitted in digital form via email (see below). The winner will be announced in May 2019.

Nomination Period:

- January 1, 2019 – March 31, 2019

Eligibility:

- College or university based communications officers primarily engaged with the management and operation of the communications program at an AAVMC member institution.
- Nominations are welcome from any individual employed by an AAVMC member institution and candidates may nominate themselves.

Performance Period:

- Work accomplished between January 1 and December 31, 2018 will be considered during the award cycle.

Award Criteria:

- Strategic nature of communication program, extent to which it advances organizational goals and comparative metrics that demonstrate results.
• Overall quality and scope of the communication program conducted on behalf of the member institution (owned and earned media, print, digital and multimedia products).

Judging:

Nominations will be adjudicated by a team of qualified judges based upon documentation submitted during the application/nomination process:
