

AAVMC Conference/Symposia Diversity & Inclusion Assessment Tool

Updated June 2020

Diversity and Inclusion	Not in Place	In Progress	Implemented
PROGRAM COMMITTEE
Consider committee composition & demographics; add participants as necessary.
Chief Diversity Officer is a permanent member of the program committee.
Ensures diversity remains a core part of thematic programming.
Recruits a diverse set of abstract reviewers.
Recruits wider participate in abstract submission.
EARLY PLANNING EVENTS
Meeting date selection consciously avoids religious and national holidays.
Consideration of whether a meeting locale (hotel or conference center) has an ongoing labor dispute.
PARTNERSHIPS &amp; SPONSORSHIP
Sharing the AAVMC Principles of Inclusion policy document with potential partners.
Consider criteria for partnership related to DEI.
Seek sponsorship of specific DEI elements of the meeting (lactation pods, assistive technology, video capture and transcription, etc.)
ABSTRACT EVALUATION
Abstract rubrics include a component devoted to DEI.
Proposed programming is evaluated for consistency with organizational D & I goals.
• Panels
• Keynote Speakers
• Breadth of Conference Speakers
• Program Placement on Schedule
MEETING PROMOTION
Content uses inclusive language and images.
Reinforces organizational commitment to inclusion.
Encourages new colleague participation.

Continued >>>

Intentional Organizational Diversity & Inclusion Efforts Assessment Tool (Continued)

Diversity and Inclusion	Not in Place	In Progress	Implemented
MEETING REGISTRATION
Registration seeks info on:
• Race/Ethnicity
• Gender Identity
• Accessibility
• Dietary Needs
• Sign Language Interpretation
• Assistive Listening Device
• Preferred Seating (Front/Rear/Door Accessible)
• Fragrance/Scent Allergies
MEETING IMPLEMENTATION
Indigenous land acknowledgements.
Slavery historical acknowledgements
Reflective/Quiet/Lactation Space
Availability of a gender neutral restroom
Confirmed wheelchair access throughout the conference center to include meeting tables and stage
Reserved seating for those with disabilities and/or those who may need easier access to exits.
Presentations are confirmed for ease of viewing/accessibility.
Additional seating at social events for those with limited mobility.
Insistence of microphone usage by all attendees and participants
Interpretation (through assistive technology or individual)
Printed programs with limited large print availability
Ongoing use of meeting moderators to ensure needs of attendees are met
POST- MEETING EVALUATION
Meeting evaluation includes D&I component assessments.
Evaluations are reviewed for opportunities for improvement.			